The Devil Speaks True

3for2

THU 20 APR
6PM & 8.30PM

A chilling exploration of the psychological effects of war.

Using wireless headphones, 360 degree binaural sound design and sometimes complete darkness, the real words of ex-servicemen are cut with the text of Shakespeare's Macbeth to investigate the return home from conflict zones. Projection, scent, light and dance convey these experiences for the audience, giving them the engulfing and emotionally intense sensation of 'being' Banquo.

ECCLESIA PRESENTS

Hidden

FRI 21 & SAT 22 APR 8PM

A play about finding the courage to face the truth of who you are.

Set against the collapse of the economic bubble in 2008, Hidden is a love story about invisible disability in difficult times. Chris is a city lawyer; Jess is a PhD student. On the surface, they're just two ordinary people in a relationship who want to get on with their lives. But there's something unsaid; undiscovered.

When their son is born, everything changes...

THE MARLOWE AND WISE WORDS FESTIVAL PRESENT

Warrior Poets

TUE 2 MAY 1PM-9PM

WED 3 MAY 1PM-6PM

A magical installation experience.

Warrior Poets brought tears, joy and inspiration to the hundreds of people in Canterbury who saw it last year.

It now returns to our theatre as part of the 2017 Wise Words Festival.

Inspired by poetry written by local children in care and young refugees, Artistic Director Lemn Sissay, poets Joelle Taylor and Alex Vellis, artist Greg Stobbs, musician Richard Navarro and projection artists Butch Auntie have created a moving and immersive experience.

“A moment in time to stop, look, listen, and applaud courage.” AUDIENCE MEMBER

Exploring The Possibilities Of Forgiveness Through Real Stories

Hosted by Lemn Sissay

WED 3 MAY 7PM

Warrior Poets provides a stage for conversations that explore the arts as a catalyst for change – a subject close to artistic director, Lemn Sissay's heart.

In 2011 Jacob Dunne killed a man in an unprovoked attack. At this event Lemn Sissay will be talking to both Jacob Dunne and to Joan Scourfield, the mother of the man he killed. They will share with us how meeting through restorative justice has brought healing and helped both of them shape a better future.

Outside and look for the granddaddy

Each night I'd go outside and look for the brightest star.
The star was my granddaddy. I'd tell him my world.

SOHO THEATRE AND JACK ROOKE PRESENT

Jack Rooke: Good Grief

3for2

FRI 5 MAY 8PM

Rooke's critically acclaimed debut.

With a coffin full of sympathy snacks, Jack Rooke and his 85-year old Nan Sicely invite you to the happiest town in Britain, where Dad's dead and the only thing to eat is lasagne.

Celebrating finding happiness after tragedy, Good Grief blends comedy and storytelling to explore how we treat the bereaved.

Jack Rooke is a comedian, writer and regular panellist on BBC Radio 1's The Surgery. He has presented a BBC Radio 4 comedy adaptation of Good Grief.

Much Further Out Than You Thought

TUE 9 MAY 8PM

Shining a light on the human cost of war.

Lance Corporal James Randall left tours of duty in Helmand six years ago, but Helmand is still far from leaving him.

On Remembrance Sunday he delivers a birthday message to his son from his living room in south London; a last-ditch attempt to reconcile their broken relationship.

Surrounded by action figures and boyhood memorabilia, James unfolds a fragmented story of fathers and sons, heroes and failures, in which the worlds of civilian Britain and frontline Afghanistan catastrophically collide.

Winner of the IdeasTap/Underbelly Award 2015.

GRIST TO THE MILL PRESENTS

The Unknown Soldier

FRI 19 MAY 8PM
 SAT 20 MAY 3PM & 8PM

A story of comradeship, betrayal and of promises made and kept following the carnage of World War One.

Jack stayed on when the guns fell silent, to search the battlefields for the boys that could not go home - for the dead and the missing, for both enemy and friend. And amongst the rusty wire and unexploded bombs Jack is looking for something - looking for someone.

He has a promise to keep and a debt to repay, and now there is this strange request from the generals...

Every Brilliant Thing

by Duncan Macmillian with Jonny Donahoe

TUE 23 MAY 8PM

The worldwide smash hit is back on tour.

You're seven years old. Mum's in hospital. Dad says she's 'done something stupid'. She finds it hard to be happy.

You make a list of everything that's brilliant about the world.

Everything worth living for:

1. Ice cream
2. Water fights
3. Staying up past your bedtime and being allowed to watch TV
4. The colour yellow
5. Things with stripes
6. Rollercoasters
7. People falling over

SAT 10 JUN 6PM

Another kind of love story, maybe everybody's love story.

Stuff is playful, funny, sad and familiar. Lead clown for Cirque du Soleil, Sean Kempton, mixes comedy, mime, clowning and the odd bit of dance in this absurdist show about love... The result is a highly energetic and entertaining, mainly non-verbal, physical piece that takes its audience on a journey through the fragility, hilarity and awkwardness of love.

Finding Home

THU 15 JUN 8PM

Humour and moving storytelling, shining a light on loss.

A coming-of-age story that maps the journey of a girl from a seaside town, to city life as a 20-something.

Writer and performer Cecilia Knapp's debut piece is about a lot of things; growing up, Mothers, accidentally shaving off your eyebrows, drinking wine, love and one night stands. But it's mainly about losing her brother Leo to suicide and how that affects a person.

Finding Home is an evocative collaboration of words, projections, vocals and instrumentals, both classical and contemporary. Featuring music by Bellatrix and Chris Redmond.

PAPER TIGER PRODUCTIONS AND GREENWICH THEATRE PRESENT

Octopus

MON 19 JUN 8PM

3for2

A post-Brexit satire about what it means to be British.

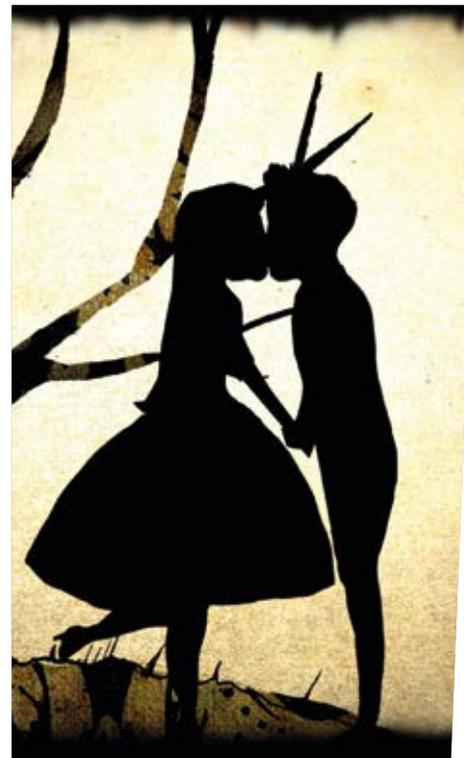

"You're an octopus. All mixed up, like me. One leg something, and one leg something else."

Three women have been called in for assessment. Sara looks sort of Asian. Scheherazade sort of Middle Eastern. And Sarah is sort of white. But how British are they?

Fresh from an acclaimed run at the Edinburgh Fringe, Octopus is a post-Brexit satire that explores what it's like to be treated as a foreigner in your own land... and the power of punk.
