

The Marlowe Bursary Fund Application

The Marlowe Bursary Fund is administered by The Marlowe Theatre Development Trust (registered charity no 1120751). It has been established to enable young people who find themselves in financially challenging circumstances to take part in our youth theatre or dance company activities at The Marlowe.

Please read the guidelines before completing the application form. If you are unable to provide evidence of financial need and do not live in East Kent please do not proceed with the application. We do not wish to waste your time.

We have very limited funds which can only be granted to fund youth theatre or dance company places for young people between the ages of eight and 21 years, living in financially challenging circumstances from East Kent.
