PUPPET STATE THEATRE COMPANY
PRESENTS

Leaf By Niggle

Based on the book by JRR Tolkien

WED 22 NOV 8PM

An enchanting version of Tolkien's miniature masterpiece.

Niggle is a painter. Not a very successful one, partly because he has so many other things to do. For some time he has been obsessed with one particular canvas. The painting keeps getting bigger, but Niggle has a journey to make. He doesn't want to go, but he cannot get out of it...

"Enchanting one man show."

Team Viking

By James Rowland

THU 18 JAN 8PM

The story of how one man gave his best friend a Viking funeral.

Five years ago, James's best friend was diagnosed with heart cancer and told he had three months to live. His last wish was to be given a full Viking burial. Combining storytelling, comedy and live music, Team Viking is the remarkable, hilarious and heart-lifting story of how James actually gave his best mate the send-off
he wanted.

"Joyous - heart-lifting and incredibly moving...
as accomplished a piece of storytelling as you

Hanna

THU 25 JAN 8PM

A funny and compelling play about the lottery of birth.

Being a young mum is supposed to be hard - but for Hanna, the only thing she's ever been brilliant at is raising her daughter Ellie. Until a DNA test reveals staggering news. Ellie is not Hanna's child. And now her 'real' parents want to meet.

How can an ancient mix-up in an overstretched maternity ward be explained to a three-year-old? Forced to question what being a parent really means, Hanna makes a drastic decision that will change all their lives.

Manwatching

Written by an anonymous woman

Performed by an unprepared man

THU 15 FEB 8PM

A funny and frank insight into heterosexual female desire, read out loud by a man.

"So I think it's fair to say that most women almost definitely do masturbate. We just wait to discuss it until we're in an oddly anonymous but public situation like this one."

Manwatching begins with a male comedian being given a script they have never seen before. They read the script out loud, sight unseen, in front of an audience. This is a show about what one woman thinks about when she thinks about sex with men.

SAT 10 MAR 8PM

2017 Edinburgh Comedy Award Best Show nominee.

The star of BBC Radio 4's Mae Martin's Guide To... and ComedyCentral's Mae Martin Live, presents her award-nominated stand-up show Dope on tour.

Comedy's most naturally charismatic young storyteller examines a lifetime of obsessions, fandom and addiction, and "will have you hooked from start to finish" (★★★★ Evening Standard).

"A propulsive, thoughtful, but effortlessly entertaining show."

TICKETS: £13.25, Friends £11, Discovery Tickets £10

MAY CONTAIN ADULT THEMES AND LANGUAGE.

Chris Wood

TUE 28 NOV 8PM

Weaving tradition with contemporary parallels.

Chris Wood is an uncompromising writer whose music reveals his love for the un-official history of the English speaking people. Always direct and unafraid to speak his mind, his songwriting has been praised for its surgical clarity.

Hollow Point, his chilling ballad of the shooting of Jean Charles Menez, won a BBC Folk Award (he's won six in total) and emphatically secured Wood's place as a serious speech-master for the unofficial history of England.

John Kirkpatrick: Carolling And Crumpets

THU 14 DEC 8PM

A heart-warming evening of song.

This show is a heart-warming look at the timeless rituals found in the folklore and folk music of England at Midwinter.

Add to the mixture a light-hearted smattering of hilarious original songs, a sprinkling of carols both familiar and unfamiliar, all stirred up with John's usual panache and energy, and you have an unbeatable recipe for having a rattling good sing, guaranteed to keep the spirits cheery and the cold at bay.

TICKETS: £15.25, Concessions £13.25, Friends save £1.25

Police Dog Hogan

FRI 23 FEB 8PM

An eclectic and high-energy seven-piece band.

Police Dog Hogan combine fiddle, trumpet, mandolin, drums and guitars with four-part harmonies in an exuberant and genre-defying fusing of country, pop, folk, and rocking urban bluegrass.

Much-loved Guardian columnist Tim Dowling adds his banjo to the musical mix.

"One of our favourite bands."

Raghu Dixit

FRI 9 MAR 8PM

Unique and happy music which transcends genre.

Often hailed as India's biggest cultural and musical export, Raghu Dixit's unique brand of infectious, happy music transcends age, genre, and even language. His music is strongly rooted in Indian traditions and culture and is presented with a very contemporary, global sound.

Raghu Dixit's second studio album Jag Changa was Songlines Editor's 'Top of the world' album choice for December 2014, and he has been seen on Jool Holland's Later (BBC1) and even performed for the Queen.
