We are delighted that you are interested in joining The Marlowe Dance Network - our partnership programme with schools, teachers and dance professionals committed to supporting the development of dance in Kent and the south east.

Joining this network will give your school/organisation access to a high quality year-round programme of creative learning opportunities at The Marlowe, including the chance to perform in The Theatre as part of an annual dance showcase event.

Current opportunities include:

Coal

Gary Clarke Company - CPD workshop for dance teachers, Saturday 24 February 2018

Matthew Bourne's Cinderella

New Adventures - Curtain Raiser for 30 young aspiring dancers GCSE - undergraduate level, six Saturdays leading up to Friday 25 May 2018. Audition day Saturday 31 March 2018.

The Marlowe Dance Network Presents... Steam

The Marlowe Dance Network partners each present a short piece in response to a shared theme, Thursday 5 & Friday 6 July 2018

We are looking to accept 20 schools/organisations who will engage with all aspects of the programme and be committed for a minimum of one year.

Please complete the questions overleaf.
